

Ride Toward Redemption: Grandfather Cycles 2000 Miles for Ponzi Victims' Justice - First 1k Miles Complete

Aaron Novinger, a grandfather of three, embarks on a cross-country bike ride to raise $1M and spotlight Ponzi scheme devastation

PONTIAC, ILLINOIS, UNITED STATES, May 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Aaron, a grandfather of three, has pedaled his bike across four states and has completed the first 1,000 miles as he rides from Dallas to Washington DC. Along the way, he is spreading hope and inspiration for the families affected by the StarGrower Ponzi scheme. Aaron is currently pedaling toward Chicago, IL

Aaron Novinger embarks on an extraordinary 2,000+ mile journey riding his bike across the United States. The Pedaling for Ponzis ride is to raise awareness and funds for the families of the StarGrower Ponzi scheme where over 40 families lost more than 8 million dollars.

Novinger began his journey on April 22, 2024 from Fort Worth, Texas with a goal to raise $1 million before reaching his final destination in Washington D.C. Aaron will give 100 percent of the charitable donations to the dozens the families who gave money, in some cases life savings, to StarGrower Asset Management, and its founder George Blankenbaker, who is in jail for defrauding his investors (most of whom were elderly). Pedaling for Ponzis:

Monday, April 22, 2024 – May 27, 2024 (Memorial Day)

12 Major U.S. Cities Along the Way (list below)

Inspired by his personal journey of overcoming physical disabilities and building successful businesses, Novinger decided to channel his resilience into a mission for justice and restoration. Accompanied by his devoted wife, Rebecca, he will pedal the grueling distance advocating for change and petitioning for stricter laws against Ponzi scheme perpetrators and state relief funds to aid the affected families.

"Many retirees lost their life savings because of the deceitful actions of one person," says Novinger. "If one person can be responsible for taking away someone's retirement, why can't many of us, working together, get it all back. We must unite to rewrite the narrative for these families, offering hope where there's been despair." Novinger invites everyone to join him on this journey of compassion and solidarity, "Together, we will pedal towards justice, one mile at a time."
