

Rhythms of Resilience: Fernando Huergo's Big Band Album Relentless Transforms Struggles into Triumph

NEW BEDFORD, MA, UNITED STATES, May 9, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Renowned bassist, composer, and arranger, Fernando Huergo unveils his highly anticipated album, Relentless, on May 24, 2024. This evocative musical journey is inspired by Luke Mogelson's insights in The New Yorker and delves into the complexities of societal struggles, including oppression, discrimination, and environmental challenges.

Huergo's masterful compositions serve as a powerful call for hope and compassion in the face of adversity. Relentless features a big band of exceptional musicians, led by Huergo himself, including Jeff Claassen, Billy Buss, Dan Rosenthal, Greg Hopkins, Randy Pingrey, Chris Gagne, Jason Camelio, Andy Garcia, Yulia Musayelyan, Rick Stone, Allan Chase, Rick DiMuzio, Joel Springer, Daniel Ian Smith, Santiago Bosch, Gen Yoshimura, and Ernesto Diaz.

The album boasts a captivating track list, including "Ornette," a stirring tribute to jazz legend Ornette Coleman, and "La Vida Sigue," a poignant reflection on life's journey after the pandemic. Huergo's meticulously crafted arrangements allow each musician's unique talent to shine through, particularly Billy Buss, Yulia Musayelyan, and Allan Chase, who contribute significantly to the album's depth and emotional resonance.

Co-produced by Fernando Huergo and Yulia Musayelyan, and expertly mixed by Alex Rodríguez, Relentless delivers a rich and immersive fiery experience, further enhanced by the masterful mastering of Luis Bacqué.
