

Sabeer Nelli Celebrates SourceForge Recognition, Credits Team, and Customers for Zil Money's Success

TYLER, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, May 11, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sabeer Nelli, the CEO and founder of Zil Money, has expressed his joy over the company's recent recognition from SourceForge as a Category Leader for Spring 2024. Zil Money, a leading financial technology platform, has been celebrated for its outstanding contribution to the fintech sector. This honor, granted by SourceForge, a major software discovery and review platform, recognizes the best in class based on user feedback and technological excellence.

Sabeer thanked his team and customers for their dedication and support, attributing Zil Money's success to their collective effort. He said, "This award is not just for us, but a testament to our amazing team and loyal customers who have believed in and supported our vision."

Zil Money has been recognized as a standout among the over 90,000 products reviewed on SourceForge, which attracts nearly 20 million visitors monthly. Its quality, performance, and high user satisfaction rates were key factors in earning this recognition. As a result, Zil Money received the SourceForge Spring 2024 Leader Award badge, which signifies excellence and reliability in the fintech sector.

Zil Money offers a wide range of financial services, such as business check printing, banking, and advanced financial management tools. It consistently innovates to simplify and secure financial operations for businesses and individuals. With the recent recognition and ongoing support from his team and customers, Sabeer is optimistic about the future and the potential for further innovation and leadership in the fintech sector.

The payment SaaS platform provides advanced features like Positive Pay to prevent check fraud and offers a comprehensive mobile app, enhancing user security and productivity. Zil Money Corporation is the parent company of OnlineCheckWriter.com - powered by Zil Money and Zil US. It connects with over 22,000 banks, simplifying the management of multiple accounts. The platform supports several payment options, including ACH, checks, and wire, accommodating different user needs and maintaining a significant presence in the financial technology sector.

Zil Money's Payroll by Credit Card feature is gaining popularity among small businesses. It offers a convenient way to manage payroll through credit cards, helping owners overcome cash flow issues by ensuring employees are paid on time. This feature integrates seamlessly with accounting systems and allows payments via printed or emailed checks. Additionally, users benefit from cash-back rewards, tax advantages, better cash management, and the ability to earn reward points with each transaction.
