Los Angeles Musical Theatre Studio (LAMTS) is excited to announce the return of Tony Award-winning actress Faith Prince to its faculty this summer. Building on the success of her previous class, Ms. Prince will lead an 8-session course titled "Deep Connection to Your Material," tailored for performers aiming to deepen their engagement with their roles.

Faith Prince, beloved for her captivating Broadway performances and her 1992 Tony Award for Best Actress in a Musical for "Guys and Dolls," will share her extensive experience in interpreting and connecting with theatrical material. This course is designed to assist performers at all levels in exploring and embodying the emotional and psychological depths of their roles.

Over the eight sessions, participants will engage intensively with techniques that Ms. Prince has refined over her distinguished career. The focus will be on developing a nuanced understanding and authentic expression within their performances, ensuring a transformative learning experience.

"We are delighted to welcome back Faith Prince to LAMTS," said Dan Fishbach, Co-Director of LAMTS. "Her profound impact on students during her previous tenure was remarkable. We are looking forward to another series of sessions where she will continue to inspire and elevate our students' capabilities."

The course will commence on June 10th. Enrollment is limited to maintain a personalized and
