PandaMR, a leading metaverse development company, announces its rebranding as Cerebrum Progressus.

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, May 13, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

PandaMR is a leading metaverse development company with years of experience in building virtual 3D environments for business purposes.

PandaMR announces its rebranding as Cerebrum Progressus, aiming to advance in the metaverse world and expand to new markets.

With a team of professionals specialized in the creation and adoption of virtual three-dimensional spaces, Cerebrum Progressus will continue providing the full package of PandaMR's services and will be committed to progress.

PandaMR's portfolio encompasses a wide range of virtual venues - from virtual branches of banks to virtual ecommerce stores. The company can design any item needed for a virtual space - be it a piece of digital art, a virtual product, or a whole metaverse enterprise and can provide innovative ways of advertising, marketing, and sales.

Cerebrum Progressus will remain the technological provider of the Cerebrum ecosystem.

As a metaverse development company, it will continue to develop different metaverse platforms for businesses of all kinds.

We warmly welcome businesses and partners to join us at Cerebrum Progressus, where we offer reimagined opportunities.
