

Hunger Games, Pulp Fiction Among Highlights of Zone·tv™ Content Offering

Zone·tv continues to add blockbusters and major award-winning movies to zone·ify, its multi-channel video service.

TOLEDO, OHIO, UNITED STATES, May 14, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Now available to Canadian audiences on a free-to-stream basis is the iconic four-part Hunger Games franchise, and a group of director Quentin Tarantino's most revered movies including Pulp Fiction, Django Unchained, Inglourious Basterds, and The Hateful Eight. And just added in May, a collection of major award-winning movies including Good Will Hunting, Silver Linings Playbook, American Hustle, The Theory of Everything, and The King's Speech is also available on zone·ify.

“As we continue to expand our content library, we’re delighted to offer Canadians the Hunger Games franchise that grossed $3 billion worldwide and helped Jennifer Lawrence skyrocket to superstardom,” said Jeff Weber, CEO of Zone·tv.

“What more can be said about the mastery of director Quentin Tarantino,” continued Weber. “He is one of the most celebrated directors of all time and every one of his titles has become a modern classic. Making some of his most notable films available on zone·ify is a dream come true.”

“The icing on the cake,” said Weber, “is the gallery of award-winners that are now available free to stream on zone·ify. There’s a reason these movies took home a statue at one of the major award ceremonies – they feature groundbreaking performances and are rewatchable forever.”

Through a deep and diverse content library including 2,000 movies, over 200 streaming channels and 40,000 short-form videos, zone·ify delivers a fresh, all-in-one entertainment experience at no cost to the viewer.
