

ecfirst and GovBrief Collaborate on Decoding CMMC Webinars

Insight for the Defense Industrial Base for CMMC Readiness and Assessment

WAUKEE, IA, USA, May 16, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- ecfirst is excited to announce a strategic partnership with GovBrief, a prominent provider of educational programs for the governmental sector. As an organization approved by the Department of Defense for CMMC certification training content and instruction, ecfirst is dedicated to continually researching the latest industry best practices to meet requirements. These findings are presented in the Decoding CMMC Webinars.

GovBrief leverages its extensive network within government agencies to deliver highly informative and engaging webinars. These sessions are crafted to provide government employees and contractors with the latest insights and tools needed to address emerging cyber threats and improve their cybersecurity protocols.

"We at ecfirst are humbled with the opportunity to partner with GovBrief, a leader in delivering timely and valued content on their platform to agencies and contractor organizations," stated Ali Pabrai, Chief Executive of ecfirst. "The GovBrief platform coupled with ecfirst content brings an opportunity to accelerate and optimize DIB CMMC awareness and readiness to meet requirements."

The GovBrief collaboration will utilize ecfirst's deep commitment to the CMMC ecosystem to bring certification training, readiness, and assessment tools and insight to DIB organizations.

"We are thrilled to have ecfirst on GovBrief as federal contractors need to understand the impact of and prepare for requirements like CMMC. This is a perfect fit because ecfirst is a known leader in the cybersecurity field with top-tier educational content," says Dave Lowe, CEO of GovBrief.

"Let's be clear - DoD contractors face unique challenges that include intense dedication to the warfighter protecting our country. These briefings will address specific challenges faced by defense contractors and, more importantly, provide solutions that are both practical and effective in meeting DoD's raising of the bar for cyber protection."

Webinar, DoD CMMC Mandate for Defense Industrial Base (DIB), May 21, 2024

This briefing will cover the readiness steps that leadership must prioritize for their organizations to be prepared for a CMMC assessment and certification. CMMC 2.0 requirements will be incorporated into DFARS contracts, including flow-down through the sub-contracting supply chain. More information, including registration, is at <https://govbrief.us>.
