This year's fourth Conference, hosted by Braniff Airways Foundation, follows the organization's sellout Conference in September 2019. This year's event promises to entertain and will serve as a fundraising event for Braniff Airways Foundation.

An impressive list of entertainers, speakers and Braniff employee group interviews will be presented at the most popular and biggest Braniff event held. Braniff Airways Foundation will also present its new Hall of Fame inductees for 2024.

The morning History Section of the event will include a review of Braniff's seven-decade association with the Dallas Cowboys; special employee group discussion interviews with Braniff pilots and flight attendants that flew the Vietnam-era Military Airlift Command MAC charters for the US Government and the Airline's Latin America Division, which celebrated 75 years since its inauguration last year.

The afternoon Architecture Section will include speaker Patrick Carreno, the new director of the City of Dallas Department of Aviation; a review of Braniff's hotel architecture in Latin America and updates on Braniff's Exchange Park Headquarters and a special remembrance of Dallas-native and film star legend Dorothy Malone and her christening of the world's first Drive-In Ticket Office for Braniff in 1966.

Entertainment includes the amazing dancers of Grace Hawaiian, from Dallas, Texas. An array of Braniff films and tv commercials will also be presented during this special day-long event that will include a fully catered meal from Braniff's eastbound Honolulu to DFW inflight menu.
