“The team have worked very hard with Lucas on his race craft using Lucas video data from the last meeting, the team spent countless hours during the week discussing with Lucas, his kart placement and decision making on track” Adrian Blantford said.

ULTIMATE R work hard to train and coach their drivers whilst maintaining a personal approach to maximise potential and performance. ULTIMATE R works towards drivers goals, whilst addressing drivers weaknesses, but more importantly focusing on their strengths to help each driver get the result they want.

Ultimate R Driver Coach Matty Hingeley said “Lucas showed how quickly he can take information in and implement that out on the track, we still have work to do but this was an exceptional step forward in his development with Ultimate R and the P2 in the final was well deserved.”
