Driving Telco Industry Innovation: MULTIPLAI and ConnectiviTree Forge Strategic Alliance for Data & AI

RUGGELL, LIECHTENSTEIN, May 15, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MULTIPLAI, a top-tier European Data & AI consulting services company, and ConnectiviTree (Europe) AG, the pioneering neutral wholesale long-haul connectivity provider, proudly unveil their strategic partnership focused on Data & AI in the Telco industry.

This groundbreaking collaboration is set to address the growing challenges stemming from the global demand surge for internet and data networks, particularly with the imminent arrival of 5G technology and the critical role of AI in the data-driven landscape. Leveraging ConnectiviTree's innovative network technology, the partnership aims to fuel AI innovation by facilitating dedicated connectivity between edge data centers for real-time processing. Through this partnership, the ConnectiviTree Global Alliance and its multinational enterprise clientele will benefit from tailored AI solutions, enhancing operational efficiency and elevating customer experience.

Holger Mai, CEO of MULTIPLAI, expressed excitement about the partnership, stating, "Together with ConnectiviTree and their partners and enterprise customers, we will define and deliver Telco-specific AI use-cases to address current and future challenges."

ConnectiviTree's Executive Chairman Andreas Hipp, added, "MULTIPLAI's and ConnectiviTree's visionary approach are the perfect match to disrupt the traditional telco industry."
