

LADO International Institute: Innovations in ESL Education and New Opportunities for International Students

VIENNA, VIRGINIA, UNITED STATES, May 16, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Located in the heart of Washington D.C., LADO International Institute stands out as one of the most recognized institutions in teaching English as a Second Language (ESL). With a history of educational excellence, LADO is proud to announce significant updates that will benefit current and future students, reaffirming its commitment to innovation and quality education.

Accredited by SEVIS, the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement under the Department of Homeland Security, LADO International Institute enables students to obtain their I-20 certificate. This certificate is crucial for embassy interviews, where students can apply for the F-1 Visa, allowing them to enter the United States with student status.

To support this process, LADO has an international admissions department that guides future students through the document processing in a personalized manner.

The international admissions department is responsible for:

- Advising students on the requirements and steps to obtain the F-1 Visa.
- Sending the I-20 certificate to students accepted into their chosen program.

- Guiding students on how to prepare for the embassy interview and what documents to bring.
- Addressing any questions or concerns students may have about the visa process or the ESL program.

Starting in June, LADO International Institute will introduce a new schedule for its 2-Day Intensive program. This program, held on Mondays and Tuesdays from 08:50 to 17:50, is designed to provide students with more free time during the rest of the week. This enhancement not only optimizes study time but also allows students to enjoy a more balanced and productive experience.

"This new schedule will allow me to dedicate more time to my hobbies and explore the city," says Ana, an international student. "Flexibility is key to maintaining a healthy balance between study and personal life."

Sandra Basu, the director of LADO's 2-Day Intensive program, adds: "This change reflects our commitment to adapting to our students' needs and providing them with a superior educational experience."

In its constant quest for innovation, LADO has enhanced its online classes so that students who cannot travel to the United States can also benefit from LADO's renowned ESL learning method. These virtual classes offer the same educational quality and personalized attention as the in-person courses, allowing students to learn English from anywhere in the world. "LADO's online classes have exceeded my expectations," says Francisco, a student from Chile. "The interaction with teachers and other students is excellent, and I can continue learning
