placement and deliverability. By joining the Emailexpert Marketing Consortium, Postmastery will collaborate with other industry leaders to share insights, best practices, and technological advancements that drive the future of email marketing.

"We are delighted to welcome Postmastery to our consortium," said Nely Bonar, Director at Emailexpert. "Their expertise in email deliverability and analytics is a valuable addition to our collective knowledge base. This collaboration will undoubtedly enhance the effectiveness of email marketing strategies for all our members."

The Emailexpert Marketing Consortium is a collective of leading companies in the email infrastructure space dedicated to advancing the field of email marketing. Its mission is to foster collaboration, share knowledge, and thereby enable professionals to enhance the effectiveness of email communications.

"We are thrilled to join forces with the Emailexpert Marketing Consortium," said Willem Stam, CCO of Postmastery. "This partnership underscores our commitment to playing a strong role in the international email marketing community and driving education and knowledge sharing."

By joining the consortium, Postmastery will contribute its expertise in email delivery optimization, data analytics, and compliance. This collaboration will enable consortium members to leverage Postmastery's proprietary technologies and insights, improving the overall performance and reliability of their email marketing efforts.

"The addition of Postmastery to our consortium is a significant milestone," said Andrew Bonar, Chairperson of the

Andrew Bonar presenting at Deliverability Summit London

Emailexpert Marketing Consortium. "Their expertise in email deliverability and analytics will be invaluable as we continue to innovate in education and learning opportunities and help our members address the evolving challenges of the email marketing landscape. We look forward to the positive impact this collaboration will bring to our members and the industry as a whole."
