At sixteen, Ashley picked up the guitar and began writing songs, embarking on an adventurous journey that included skydiving and bungee jumping. Her path led her to work with world-class singer/songwriter/producer Bryan Cole and lead sound engineer Doug Kasper at Tonic Studios. Together with legendary musicians like Mike Brignardello, John Willis, Mike Johnson, Heidi Engel, Tammy Petty, and newcomer Adam Ernst, Ashley's debut album "Never Say Never" became a reality. Released on MTS Records on February 14, 2020, her first single "Medicine" charted nationally, followed by the chart-topping success of "Bulletproof" and "What's Her Name." Her self-penned single "Tequila" hit the Music Row country charts in 2023.

"I've never given up on where I wanted to be in the music industry," Ashley shares. "When life pulls you in so many different directions, it sometimes takes you off-guard. I believe everything happens for a reason, and although I feel I'm always at the wrong place at the wrong time, somehow that led me to the right place at the right time."
