Florida Vow Renewals, Eloping in Florida, Destination Weddings on a Budget & Affordable Florida Beach Wedding Packages by Suncoast Weddings

TREASURE ISLAND, FLORIDA, USA, May 17, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Suncoast Weddings is pleased to announce enhancements to its package offerings to include beach wedding and reception packages. Couples getting married or renewing their vows in Florida are often looking to extend the magic of the day with a reception, either on the beach or near the beach where the ceremony will take place. Receptions may vary from a 'cake and bubbly' reception next to the arch to a more traditional reception with a buffet, a dancefloor, a DJ, and decor to match the day's theme. One of the major advantages of booking a Florida beach wedding and reception together is being able to control the budget and see all costs together in one place. This is a popular option for couples looking for an affordable way to say their vows in the Sunshine State. Another benefit is having one point of contact if any details change, like the number of people attending, and always having one person to clarify arrangements with instead of trying to coordinate across several companies. they are planning their wedding or vow renewal from out of state. Suncoast Weddings are premier wedding planners based on Florida's west coast, a popular location for destination weddings because of the pristine beaches and the possibility of a golden sunset backdrop over the Gulf of Mexico, they can help combine the planning of a beach wedding alongside a reception and even accommodation. Having local experts takes the guesswork out of finding vendors for the essentials of the big day such as a florist or a cake baker. With a choice of so many beaches nearby, they can also help advise which location may be the best choice in terms of accessibility, proximity to a reception venue, boardwalk access, which beaches allow dogs, how wide the beach is if the wedding party is large, and what type of beach wedding decor would be suitable. Most couples booking with Suncoast Weddings choose to say "I Do" under an arch. Suncoast Weddings offers a choice of a two-post bamboo arch, a four-post arch, and a two-post birchwood arch. The arch can be draped with chiffon to match a color theme, with popular choices including turquoise, traditional white or ivory, pink, purple, aqua, royal blue, sage, red, and lilac. The chosen color theme is then often enhanced with matching sash accents on the chairs for family and friends in attendance.

A beach wedding offers the opportunity to follow some traditions while enjoying a stress-free outdoor ceremony. Chairs can be arranged in a variety of layouts including a spiral or a circle, and beach wedding signs can be rented from Suncoast Weddings to personalize the space. One of the most popular signs invites guests to "pick a seat, not a side" encouraging everyone to mix and mingle as two families become one. All of the base packages can be customized and tailored.

Suncoast Weddings is based in Treasure Island and offers beach weddings in Florida on the sandy beaches of the west coast of Florida in the Clearwater, St Pete Beach, Madeira Beach, Treasure Island area.
