A Proven Setting for Mental Health Treatment in Nevada

The newly launched residential treatment program for mental health clients in Vegas is designed to provide intensive, round-the-clock care for individuals struggling with mental health issues, whether or not they have a concurrent substance abuse diagnosis. This expansion underscores Icarus Behavioral Health's commitment to delivering effective, evidence-based behavioral health services to those in need.

"We are thrilled to offer this new inpatient mental health treatment program to our community," said a spokesperson for Icarus Behavioral Health Nevada. "Our goal is to provide a safe, supportive environment where individuals can receive the mental health support they need to heal and thrive. By accepting a broad range of insurance plans, we are making it easier for residents of Las Vegas and the entire state of Nevada to access the vital services they need."

Icarus in Nevada Accepts Many Insurances In-Network

In an effort to make these critical services accessible to as many individuals as possible, Icarus Behavioral Health Nevada accepts a wide range of insurance plans. The center is in-network with major providers including Aetna, Cigna, Molina, Optum, and TRICARE, among others. Additionally, Icarus Behavioral Health proudly accepts many forms of Nevada Medicaid, such as Silver Summit, ensuring that financial barriers do not impede access to quality mental health care.
