

(W)right On Communications Recognized as One of “America’s Best PR Agencies” by Newsweek

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, May 20, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- (W)right On Communications has been recognized in Newsweek magazine’s inaugural list of America’s Best PR Agencies, based on a national survey of 2,400 industry professionals that names the Top 150 from among the more than 12,000 agencies operating in the USA.

The agency was further named for its excellence in four categories -- “Health Care & Pharmaceuticals”, “Consumer Goods, Retail & Fashion”, “Internal Corporate Communications & Employee Engagement” and “Brand Reputation & Marketing” -- the latter two of which (W)right On Communications was named in the Top 25 percent of the Top 150.

“We are incredibly honored to be acknowledged by Newsweek and our industry colleagues across the United States. This achievement is a testament to the trust placed in us by our incredible client partners and the savvy and imaginative (W)right On team delivering impactful results every day,” says Grant Wright, CEO of (W)right On Communications. “With our industry capability spanning across B2B, Energy, Technology, Life Sciences, Healthcare, Lifestyle and Hospitality among many others no two days are alike. This recognition reaffirms our dedication to leading the way in the ever-changing communications industry.”
