

EBC Financial Group and Elite Trader Club Enhance Mosque Facilities and Help 75 Orphans through CSR in Banten, Indonesia

Recently, EBC Financial Group (EBC) partnered with Elite Trader Club (ETC) to launch a Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) initiative to repair mosque facilities, support education, and aid 75 orphans at the Nurul Ibad Child Welfare Institution (LKSA) in Banten, Indonesia. This impactful initiative underscores the companies' dedication to enhancing educational and health conditions for underprivileged communities and highlights their commitment to fostering a more equitable and inclusive society.

The Nurul Ibad Child Welfare Institution is an educational foundation devoted to providing orphans with opportunities to achieve the highest level of education and religious understanding. In addition to education, the foundation offers shelter and essential support to help orphans and impoverished children grow and thrive.

By providing cash donations and food aid, EBC Financial Group and ETC directly support the daily needs of the children at the orphanage. This tangible assistance not only improves
