

EBC Financial Group Aids Taiwan Earthquake Relief Efforts

EBC Financial Group mobilizes swiftly to support Hualien communities with essential aid and rebuilding initiatives.

EBC Financial Group has taken decisive action to support the communities affected by the recent earthquake in Hualien, Taiwan. Following the earthquake in April 2024, EBC has coordinated with disaster relief centers to address the immediate needs of the disaster-stricken area.

Following a detailed assessment of the situation, EBC Financial Group made significant donations of essential supplies, including food, water, sanitary products, and medical items such as face masks and bandages. These efforts are part of EBC's broader mission to support global communities in times of crisis.

EBC has made donations to provide critical relief items to the communities affected by the earthquake in the country. The donations include essential items and medical supplies to the impacted area. EBC also coordinated with local partners and non-profit organizations (NGOs) in purchasing and acquiring the needed supplies to ensure a fast response to distribute the items.

Beyond providing immediate relief, EBC is actively involved in the reconstruction of community infrastructure in Hualien. The company is committed to helping residents restore normalcy by rebuilding homes and supporting the recovery of local economies.
