

Words Matter Publishing Launches the Publishers Choice Book Awards Program

Time Indie authors to shine

DECATUR, IL, UNITED STATES, May 22, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Words Matter Publishing proudly announces the launch of the Publisher's Choice Book Awards, a unique initiative designed to honor the hard work and creativity of authors worldwide. Created by Tammy Corwin, the founder and owner of Words Matter Publishing, this program aims to spotlight exceptional literary works across all genres.

In a bold move to redefine the traditional book awards framework, the Publisher's Choice Book Awards invites authors to submit their published works, offering them a platform where books are not competing with others in their genre. Instead, each submission is evaluated on its own merits, ensuring a fair and profound appreciation of the author's efforts.

"Every book has its unique voice and message. At Words Matter Publishing, we believe in recognizing and celebrating this individuality," said Tammy Corwin. "While we can't publish every author, we can certainly offer them an opportunity to shine. This program is crafted to elevate authors and help them stand out in the bustling industry."

Award Benefits

Winners of the Publisher's Choice Book Awards will receive a distinguished seal to place on their book, symbolizing excellence and distinction. Additionally, they will be awarded a certificate, perfect for displaying at literary events. In recognition of their achievements, authors can select a custom-engraved trophy, marking their success in the literary field.

Further enhancing the visibility of these awarded authors, their works will be featured in the esteemed Publisher's Choice Magazine. They will also make appearances on a dedicated television show, spotlighting their journey and their writing, thus offering unprecedented exposure to a broad audience.

Program Details and Submission Authors worldwide are invited to submit their works to the Publishers Choice Book Awards. The submission process and detailed information about the criteria and deadlines can be found on:
