

Keystone is on the move

As Keystone expands, they are moving three of their offices, including their headquarters in Irvine.

IRVINE, CA, UNITED STATES, May 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Keystone is moving its corporate office to a new location at 240 Commerce Drive, Suite 200 in Irvine later this month. Additionally, Keystone is expanding its Idaho office due to the need for more space thanks to the robust growth and success it has achieved. Finally, the Keystone Encinitas office will also be on the move later this summer to nearby Carlsbad to enhance operational efficiencies.

This move is designed with the modern professional in mind. The open interior space layout will foster collaboration and creativity, while the game room will help everyone recharge and relax.”

Cary Treff, Keystone CEO

The new Keystone Headquarters is centrally located in Irvine to support Orange County clients and will help support Keystone’s employee experience and provide team members with plenty of amenities and benefits including:

- KINETIC Fitness Center to encourage all Keystone employees to stay active with an integrated healthy lifestyle
- Café 350 – an in-house breakfast, lunch and dinner cafe which provides delicious and healthy meals throughout the day

- Basketball and Volleyball Courts
- Table Tennis
- Outdoor BBQ
- Wifi-Enabled Outdoor Space
- Conference Center that seats up to 100 people
- EV Charging stations
- Proximity to The Marketplace with local restaurants and shopping

“This move is designed with the modern professional in mind,” said Cary Treff, CEO of Keystone. “The interior space features an open layout designed to foster collaboration and creativity, while the game room will help everyone recharge and relax during breaks.”

The new locations in Meridian, Idaho and Carlsbad in San Diego County will provide those Keystone team members a chance to work in a dynamic environment with room to grow both physically and professionally.
