p.m. Jeuveau is a fast-acting neurotoxin that temporarily improves the appearance of moderate to severe frown lines in adults. According to manufacturer Evolus, a performance beauty company, the effects last up to four months on average, and about 50% of people treated had visible improvement after two days. Attendees can receive Jeuveau at the discounted price of $12/unit, unit plus an additional $40 off with Evolus Rewards. The event will feature raffle prizes, refreshments, a 20% discount on all skin care products purchased at the event and complimentary cosmetic consults.

A ribbon-cutting celebration is scheduled for June 22, with special activities and additional promotions planned to commemorate the launch. Details on these events and exclusive offers will be updated on the clinic’s website and social media accounts.
