DALLAS, TX, USA, May 30, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Kelli and Bob Phillips, renowned American journalists, have embarked on a new adventure to uncover the untold stories of ordinary people doing extraordinary things on their new national radio show, "On the Road with Kelli and Bob," available beginning in June 2, 2024 on the Audacy's NewsRadio 1080 KRLD (KRLD-AM) in Dallas and the Audacy app.

Kelli and Bob Phillips have spent their adult lives communicating with their audiences via television, radio, books, video series and social media. Bob first created "4-Country Reporter" in 1972, later to become "Texas Country Reporter" when the show entered syndication in the mid-80s. Since then, the show has been a staple in Texas and beyond, showcasing the unique stories and people that make up the fabric of Texas. The Phillips Family sold the show and their production company in January of 2022 and agreed to stay on for two years. With their new radio show, Kelli & Bob will continue to travel down the country's backroads, sharing the untold stories and hidden gems of America.

Kelli added, "And we know how busy everyone is these days, so the great thing about Audacy is you don't have to practice appointment listening or viewing, you simply download the free Audacy app and listen at the time that suites you and your schedule. And you can listen to our stories about America anywhere in the world!"
