

Mudify Celebrates First Year of Success with Extended Brake Lines

MIAMI, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, May 23, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mudify is proud to announce the first anniversary of its newest product, the Mudify Extended Brake Lines. Designed to enhance vehicle performance and safety, these brake lines have quickly become a favorite among off-road enthusiasts.

At their core, Mudify's Extended Brake Lines are exclusively built for performance and safety, featuring greater axle movement capability, extreme durability and reliability, a 3-year or 37,000-mile warranty with no questions asked, DOT approval, and compatibility with all brake fluids. Each brake line undergoes rigorous pressure testing to 3000 psi before sale, ensuring safety and performance under even the most demanding conditions. These features make the Mudify Extended Brake Lines a top choice for those requiring extended length for long travel suspension systems and are a vital addition to any off-road or overlanding vehicle

Additionally, Mudify's Extended Brake Lines are engineered with vehicle-specific rear lengths for greater axle movement, 5-layer stainless steel hoses reinforced with Kevlar, a Teflon inner core to minimize internal friction and expansion, one-piece steel end fittings for enhanced durability, and rubber hoses with two layers of tightly woven nylon braid for low expansion and high performance.

"We are thrilled with the reception of our Extended Brake Lines," says Joel Levy, owner of Mudify. "Our goal was to provide off-road enthusiasts with a reliable and high-performance product, and the feedback we've received confirms we've achieved that."

Mudify's commitment to excellence also extends beyond product quality to outstanding customer service. The company offers after-hours chat support, ensuring customers can get assistance when they need it. Mudify's dedication to customer satisfaction is reflected in its generous warranty and return policies.
