About The Author

The author, who was born in Columbus, Georgia, in 1958, is a great inspiration. She overcame several obstacles along the way and refused to let her history define who she was. After receiving her GED from DeKalb Community College in 1986, she began her diverse career at McDonald's at the age of fifteen and eventually worked her way up to the position of controller in the automotive business. Her experiences as a child were traumatic and she struggled with addiction, but she showed incredible bravery and resilience. Currently retired and content after more than 34 years of marriage, she opens up about her story in "The Many Shades of MI VIDA" to encourage and uplift anyone going through same struggles. She inspires individuals to find strength in love and tenacity via her writing.
