

Sam Llanes and Marty Unite for "4 The Kids" to Support National Foster Care Month

PARKLAND, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, May 26, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In celebration of National Foster Care Month, Sam Llanes from 3rd Beat Studios has teamed up with renowned Christian hip-hop producer Marty from Social Club Misfits to release a powerful new single, "4 The Kids." This faith-based anthem is more than just a song; it's a call to action for the Christian community, urging believers to step up and address the pressing issue of child homelessness.

Inspired by James 1:27 and Jesus' teachings about the importance of caring for children, "4 The Kids" highlights the urgent need for the church to take a leading role in eradicating child homelessness. The song's poignant lyrics and compelling beats aim to inspire and mobilize listeners to make a tangible difference in the lives of vulnerable children.

Marty, a key figure in the Christian hip-hop scene, brings his signature production style to the track, ensuring that "4 The Kids" not only delivers a powerful message but also resonates musically with a wide audience. As part of Social Club Misfits, Marty has a history of creating impactful music that challenges and uplifts, and his collaboration with Sam Llanes is no exception.

Sam Llanes, known for his heartfelt and socially conscious lyrics, delivers a stirring performance that underscores the song's call for action. His partnership with 3rd Beat Studios reflects a shared commitment to producing music that makes a difference.
