Painterly and provocative, the exhibit, co-curated by MAGO, is set to showcase highly collectible all new works exploring the dynamics of modern relationships.

Invited by the Metropolitan Museum of Art to teach a class at the age of eight, Sandy Cohen has been painting her entire life and is very much a classically trained painter. Her deft and masterly technique is evidenced in all her works.

"Sandy Cohen's use of familiar and often child-like imagery painted in the masterly tradition to convey complex emotional, social and political messaging is both visually engaging and intellectually formidable," says gallery owner Stella Flame.

Rooted in bitter-sweet personal history, the show's title is informed by a song written and recorded by the artist's late sister Fame, alongside producer Travis Kr8ts.

Exhibition continues through June 30th.

Fine jewelry designer Pinar Hakim and her exquisitely crafted diamond studded jewels will be on hand for the opening evening. Pinar Hakim was already a celebrated antique dealer, tabletop
