

Wine Country Network launches inaugural World Book of Whisky magazine

The World Book of Whisky magazine is a unique new publication dedicated to promoting whisky travel tourism and cuisine worldwide.

BROOMFIELD, CO, UNITED STATES, May 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Vivid and fresh bi-annual mag looks to appeal to thirtyish men and woman drinkers.

BROOMFIELD, CO, USA - Wine Country Network, Inc., the publisher of Wine Country International® Magazine and a global leader in producing professional beverage competitions has further bolstered its stature in the expanding whisky space with the launch of the World Book of Whisky magazine.

The World Book of Whisky magazine, a unique new publication, promotes whisky/whiskey, travel-tourism, and cuisine worldwide. It covers renowned regions like Kentucky, Scotland, and Japan and unveils hidden gems where restaurants specialize in whisky-paired cuisine and festivals that celebrate the dram.

Wine Country Network founders Christopher J Davies, a seasoned photojournalist, and Darcy R. Davies, a skilled art director, have meticulously crafted the publication's unique, vivid look and style. "As sommeliers, food, and wine critics, we gained valuable insight from our talented staff of certified spirits judges, distillers, and chefs across the globe. Our goal is to distill information into easy, attitude-free content," said Christopher J. Davies, CO-Founder and Publisher.

The inaugural issue is packed with exciting features: Whisky Journey: Exploring Scotland in a week, Women in Whisky: showcasing three women who are revolutionizing the whisky world, Food and Whisky, and a two-page educational -"Guide "How to Appreciate American Whiskey" designed to enhance the reader's American Whiskey tasting enjoyment.

The cover feature, "Passion and Portraits," features Jonathan Odde, founder of the Burns Pub in the Denver suburb of Broomfield, Colorado. Odde created an authentic British pub and whisky
