

Jack Miller Named to DBusiness 30 in Their Thirties

Jack Miller, Market President for Hylant's Detroit and Ann Arbor offices, has been named among the DBusiness 30 in Their Thirties.

TOLEDO, OH, USA, May 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jack Miller, Market President for Hylant's Detroit and Ann Arbor offices, has been named among the DBusiness 30 in Their Thirties. This designation recognizes leaders moving their companies, industries and communities forward.

Following a successful football career and graduation from the University of Michigan, Miller joined Hylant as an insurance producer, specializing in complex disability programs for the college and professional sports industry. He quickly rose to a leadership position within the company, embracing Hylant's mission to treat clients and employees like family—with honesty, respect and trust.

"I'm honored to be recognized by DBusiness alongside this community's amazing business leaders," said Miller. "I'm also thankful for the support of mentors I've had along the way. I look forward to continuing to lead the associates in Hylant's Southeast Michigan offices in providing innovative, best-in-class service to our clients."

Miller also has a passion for philanthropic opportunities, something he attributes to his upbringing and the community-centric culture at Hylant. He is on the board of Leaders for Kids and St. John's Jesuit High School, and a member of the Children's Hospital of Michigan Foundation.

"This is an honor that would not surprise many. Jack thrives based on his character," said Hylant CEO Bubba Berenzweig. "He brings an overwhelming amount of empathy and sincerity to his leadership style while also providing the highest level of accountability to our customers. His approach to business and leadership transcends generations. I am proud of everything he has achieved in such a short period."
