

CHTA Announces Second Cohort for Young Leaders Forum

MONTEGO BAY, JAMAICA, May 28, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Caribbean Hotel and Tourism Association (CHTA) has selected an exceptional group of candidates for the second cohort of the Young Leaders Forum (YLF), Class of 2026. These distinguished individuals hail from Antigua and Barbuda, Barbados, Jamaica, St. Lucia, St. Maarten, The Bahamas, and Turks and Caicos.

The selection committee, comprising respected industry professionals including Sanovnik Destang, CHTA's President-Elect and Executive Director of Bay Gardens Resorts; Paul Collymore, CEO, The Landings Resort and Spa; Laudra Maurille-Willie, Assistant Human Resource Manager, The Landings Resort and Spa; Anice O'Neil, Commercial Director, Bay Gardens Resorts; and Vanessa Ledesma, CHTA's Acting CEO and Director General, rigorously assessed each candidate to ensure the highest caliber of participants.

The program's kick-off session follows Caribbean Travel Marketplace 42, held in Montego Bay, Jamaica last week. This session will bring together the classes of 2023 and 2026, along with executives from National Hotel and Tourism Associations, to share plans to empower and equip the Young Leaders Forum participants for success.

YLF Focus Areas

The YLF program aims to equip emerging leaders with the skills and knowledge to excel in a rapidly evolving industry landscape. Key areas of focus will include:

CHTA

CARIBBEAN
ASSOCIATION

Emotional Intelligence: Understanding and managing emotions to enhance personal and professional relationships, improve decision-making, and foster a positive work environment.

Leading a Merging Workforce: Addressing the challenges and opportunities presented by a diverse workforce comprising Millennials, Gen X, Gen Y, and Boomers. Strategies for effective leadership across generational lines will be a primary focus.

Employee Experience Enhancement: Recognizing a positive employee experience is fundamental to service excellence. This module will explore ways to enhance engagement, satisfaction and retention among team members.

Hospitality Forward: Integrating technology within the industry. This segment covers advancements and innovations shaping the future of hospitality, ensuring participants are at the forefront of technological adaptation.

AI and Leadership: Exploring the role of artificial intelligence in leadership, from decision-making processes to enhancing customer interactions and operational efficiencies.

Process Optimization and Digitization: Delving into methods for streamlining operations through digital solutions, increasing efficiency, and reducing costs.

Digitization and Our Teams: Developing strategies to close team skill gaps through targeted training and development programs, ensuring all team members are proficient in the latest digital tools and technologies.

Mentorship Program

In addition to these focus areas, participants will be paired with iconic leaders from the industry through a structured mentorship program. This initiative will provide invaluable insights, guidance and support from seasoned professionals, fostering a culture of continuous learning and development.

These areas, with a strong emphasis on people and technology, are designed to prepare the young leaders for the dynamic and ever-changing nature of the hospitality industry. By combining theoretical knowledge with practical application and mentorship, CHTA is committed to shaping a resilient and innovative leadership pipeline.
