We are thrilled to open our newest office in San Bernardino”

Will Johnson

"We are thrilled to open our newest office in San Bernardino," said Will Johnson, co-founder and SVP - Corporate Affairs. "This office is crucial in our efforts to support the growing demand for solar energy solutions in the Inland Empire. By being closer to our customers, we can deliver faster service and more personalized support, solidifying our reputation as the go-to solar service provider in California."

The San Bernardino office will house a team of highly skilled technicians and support staff, all dedicated to maintaining the highest standards of service and customer satisfaction. This expansion aligns with EnergyAid's commitment to fostering sustainable energy practices and contributing to California's renewable energy goals.

EnergyAid's continued growth is a testament to its unwavering dedication to innovation, quality, and customer-centric service. As the company broadens its footprint, it remains focused on its core values of integrity, excellence, and community involvement.

With seven offices already thriving in California and Arizona, the addition of the San Bernardino location underscores EnergyAid's leadership in the solar industry. The company's comprehensive range of services, including installation, maintenance, and repair, ensures that customers receive the best possible support for their solar energy systems.
