The exhibition transports audiences into a stunning visual adventure of the life of Lonely Dog—based on New Zealand artist Ivan Clarke's artwork and novel that followed—a misunderstood orphan who overcomes bullies to become a legend whose music heals a divided society of posh cats and working-class dogs in the fictional world of Alveridgea, as animated paintings, 3D imagery, and original music are projected throughout the digital theater for an immersive, 30-minute cinematic show.

Other highlights of The Lonely Dog Immersive Experience include:

- Art Gallery: The gallery showcases nearly 40 pieces of artwork by Clarke that inspired the story, starring Lonely Dog, Celia Crème, and other hound and feline characters.

- Virtual Reality Lounge: Wearing virtual reality goggles, guests fly alongside Lonely Dog on a journey that soars through the skies and dives into the depths of the sea.
- Selfie Salon: Snap a picture with a Lonely Dog character and share it on social media.
- Art Studio: Aspiring artists complete some of Clarke's most cherished dog and cat paintings, then can see their masterpiece projected on a giant Coloring Fun Art Wall.
