“We are proud to partner with NoOnes for the Troost-Ekong Foundation Charity Football Match. Together, we empower Nigerian and African youth, making a tangible impact on local schools and communities.” said William Troost-Ekong.

The Troost-Ekong Foundation Charity Football Match, set to take place June 2nd, in Uyo, Nigeria, will kickstart a series of goodwill projects aimed at empowering youth through sports and education. With His Excellency Governor Pastor Umo Eno of Akwa Ibom's support, the match will serve as a fundraising event to propel the foundation's mission forward.

William Troost-Ekong, the founder of the foundation and a renowned footballer representing Nigeria internationally, aims to create pathways for youth in Akwa Ibom to fulfill their dreams. Passionate about sports and education, Troost-Ekong envisions building sports facilities and schools to nurture the next generation of leaders.

NoOnes, known for its mission to connect individuals to the global financial system, aligns seamlessly with the foundation's goals. "As the official sponsor of the Troost-Ekong Foundation Charity Football Match, NoOnes is honored to support initiatives that uplift youth and communities," stated Ray Youssef, CEO at NoOnes.

The event will welcome 30,000 attendees in the stadium and will be streamed online, ensuring widespread participation and support. Through this collaboration, NoOnes and the Troost-Ekong Foundation aim to create meaningful change and opportunities for youth in Akwa Ibom.
