

Spectrum Transformation Group Receives Accreditation from Autism Commission on Quality (ACQ)

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, UNITED STATES, June 3, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Autism Commission on Quality (ACQ) has awarded a full two-year accreditation to Spectrum Transformation Group for its applied behavior analysis (ABA) programs in North Chesterfield, VA.

These newly accredited locations offer ABA healthcare services to individuals and families impacted by autism. Their programs were evaluated against ACQ's Applied Behavior Analysis Accreditation Program Standards and Guide.

We believe that accreditation is not just a milestone but a reaffirmation of our organization's values, emphasizing transparency, accountability, and a culture of excellence”

Cedric Moore Jr., chief executive officer of Spectrum Transformation Group

“People with autism deserve high-quality ABA services,” said Erick Dubuque, director of ACQ. “Organizations applying for accreditation from the Autism Commission on Quality must meet rigorous standards for patient care, administration, and transparency. Indiana Behavior Analysis Academy underwent a thorough review process to earn its accreditation.”

ACQ's review process includes a wide range of business, clinical, and quality improvement activities to promote best practices and evidence-based pathways. The assessment considers clinical observations and satisfaction surveys from patients and staff, leadership interviews, and a desktop review.

Cedric Moore Jr., chief executive officer of Spectrum Transformation Group, said: “We believe that accreditation is not just a milestone but a reaffirmation of our organization's values, emphasizing transparency, accountability, and a culture of excellence.”

Spectrum Transformation Group is a licensed, certified organization that helps guide people through whatever challenges they may be facing. Whether a client is diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder or other developmental, behavioral, or emotional concerns, its team offers easily accessible support that helps individuals and those they care about.

ACQ continues to accept new applications for its two-year accreditation from organizations offering ABA as a healthcare service to individuals with autism. To learn more, visit autismcommission.org.

About Autism Commission on Quality (ACQ)

The Autism Commission on Quality (ACQ) is a nonprofit accreditation agency that recognizes applied behavior analysis organizations serving individuals and families impacted by autism. ACQ's mission is to continuously improve the impact of applied behavior analysis services for the autism community through education and accreditation of provider organizations.

ACQ is a single-member LLC of the Council of Autism Service Providers (CASP), a known and trusted nonprofit trade association for organizations serving individuals with autism. ACQ receives financial and in-kind support from CASP but maintains firewalls that protect the integrity of its essential accreditation activities. Our vision is for all recipients of applied behavior analysis services to reach their full potential through access to organizations offering the highest level of care.
