For those unfamiliar with the term, a busker is a street or subway performer who showcases their artistic talents in public spaces. Buskers come in all forms, from musicians and dancers to magicians, street artists and even Comedians. Buskers enliven public spaces.

"This year's BuskerBall" will feature a diverse lineup of talented musicians, a magician and comedian each bringing their own unique style and sound to the stage. From soulful singers to virtuosic instrumentalists, the performers at "The BuskerBall" are sure to captivate and entertain audiences of all ages.

Mission statement

The NYC BuskerBall promotes spontaneous performances and art in public spaces. BuskerBall educates adults and children on their right to express themselves and the importance of preserving our public squares. BuskerBall encourages everyone to create art and share it with their community in public spaces. Buskers and street artists provide an element of surprise in our society, increasingly driven by algorithms. Art in communal spaces is free and accessible to all, regardless of economic status, creed or race. Spontaneous performances contribute to a healthy society. GO BUSK!
