Partnering with Atlantis opens up a world of possibilities”

Jordan Sansoucy, chief executive officer (CEO) at Atlantis

With a legacy spanning over four decades, Atlantis Strength has continuously raised the bar in strength equipment manufacturing. Every cutting-edge model the company develops is meticulously crafted by experts in biomechanics, aiming to create the smoothest and best-performing piece of equipment on the market. This dedication to quality underscores the company's unwavering commitment to client satisfaction and excellence in science and performance.

"Partnering with Atlantis opens up a world of possibilities," says Jordan Sansoucy, chief executive officer (CEO) at Atlantis. "The vast and distinctive range of strength training equipment offers unparalleled options to tailor your setup precisely to your needs. With customizable features available for many of their pieces, Atlantis empowers you to craft a unique offering that sets you apart from the competition."

In an ever-evolving fitness landscape, Atlantis Strength remains at the forefront of innovation, catering to the evolving needs of fitness facilities worldwide.

"The fitness industry has changed a lot over the past few years, and so have we," adds Jordan. "Today's facilities must accommodate a much broader membership than ever before, and we are very sensitive to the new demands placed on their clients. We have been perfecting strength equipment for over 40 years, and have no plans to stop anytime soon."

Their clients, fitness consultants, professional athletes, gym owners, and countless other fitness professionals have all unlocked hidden potential and elevated their fitness journey to unprecedented levels. Each has experienced the pinnacle of performance and craftsmanship with Atlantis Strength equipment.
