

Liquid Logics Announces New Integration of KCB

Liquid Logics Integrates with KCB to Enhance Loan Processing with Comprehensive Background Checks

LEE'S SUMMIT, MISSOURI, UNITED STATES, May 29, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Liquid Logics, a leader in cloud-based loan management systems, is excited to announce its integration with KCB, a trusted provider of thorough background screening services. This collaboration aims to significantly improve the security, reliability, and efficiency of the loan origination process for private lenders, borrowers, and investors.

At Liquid Logics, we are committed to delivering cutting-edge business solutions that promote growth, streamline workflows, and enhance overall business operations for our clients. Our software, renowned for its user-centric design, supports over 12,000 brokers, correspondents, loan officers, and account executives, generating approximately 1,500 closed loans per month for First Horizon Bank. This new partnership with KCB underscores our dedication to maintaining the highest standards of security and compliance in the lending industry.

Key Features of Liquid Logics:

- Fully cloud-based SaaS Loan Management System
- CRM/lead pipeline integration
- Comprehensive workflow LOS (Loan Origination System)
- Automated credit and underwriting processes
- Servicing, reporting, and closing document management
- Three types of fund pool management structures

Integrating KCB's comprehensive background screening services into our platform enhances the security and integrity of the loan origination process, ensuring that lenders can make informed decisions with confidence.

Benefits of Liquid Logics and KCB Integration:

- Robust background checks to ensure borrower credibility
- Enhanced security and compliance with industry standards
- Streamlined loan origination process with integrated screening
- Increased lender and borrower confidence in the transaction process

“Security and reliability are paramount in the loan origination process. Our integration with KCB allows us to provide our clients with the highest level of background screening, ensuring that all loan applications are thoroughly vetted. This partnership aligns perfectly with our mission to streamline and secure the lending process,” said Sam Kaddah, CEO of Liquid Logics.

KCB is known for its comprehensive background screening services, which include criminal background checks, employment verification, and credit history reviews. By integrating these capabilities into Liquid Logics, we offer our clients a seamless and efficient way to ensure that all loan applicants meet the necessary criteria.

With this integration, Liquid Logics clients can now leverage KCB's powerful background screening tools, ensuring that every aspect of the loan process is handled with the utmost security and compliance. This collaboration highlights our commitment to providing innovative solutions that support the growth and success of private lenders.
