"As a full-service commercial restoration contractor, Pro Service Builders believes in fully understanding and serving its clients' needs, and Lynne will help us in achieving that commitment," said Pro Service Builders Owner/President, Michael Garner. "Lynne understands people, and she knows what it takes to get things done, which is why we were thrilled to be able to add her to our staff of dedicated professionals."

As Client Services Manager, Lynne will perform a wide variety of tasks, including establishing and cultivating relationships with property managers, maintenance directors in the educational field and property/casualty insurance agents.

She will also represent Pro Service Builders at events, meetings, conferences, etc., and increase brand visibility through networking. She will also actively promote Pro Service Builders' expert ability to respond to any emergency or disaster requiring restoration – mitigation – remediation, and any reconstruction that may be necessary.

In previous jobs, Lynne has worked as a project manager with a variety of national brands such as Corner Bakery, Zoe's Kitchen, Raising Cane's and Dunkin', as well as planning, design and development services for travel centers and high rise office space.
