

Keystone Hires Expert to Focus on Business Development and Mergers & Acquisitions

IRVINE, CA, UNITED STATES, May 30, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With six acquisitions in six years, Keystone is one of the fastest-growing and most successful HOA community management firms in the United States. To help Keystone continue to accelerate its growth in a way that is healthy and responsible, Laura K. Sanchez has joined the Keystone team as the Vice President of Business Development, Mergers, and Acquisitions.

Keystone needs Laura’s expertise to ensure that if and when we acquire other community management companies, we do it deliberately with the clients’ and team members’ long-term well-being in mind.”

Cary Treff, Keystone CEO

As the former owner of one of the leading law firms specializing in community association law and founder of Inspired Interaction, LLC, Sanchez has specialized in facilitating growth opportunities to help leaders take organizations to the next level through collaboration, skill assessment, and program development.

“Keystone needs Laura’s expertise and guidance to ensure that if and when we merge with or acquire other community management companies, we do it deliberately through a corporate value lens, with the clients’ and team members’ long-term well-being in mind” said Keystone

CEO Cary Treff.

With Keystone continuing to explore expansion opportunities throughout the West, and with a mergers and acquisitions specialist like Sanchez at the helm, the leadership team at Keystone is confident in future growth opportunities. They aim to ensure strategic long-term success and provide industry-leading services for Keystone clients.
