

Doctors Anytime Powered by iDocsWeb Now Offering Medical Specialist Clinics to Small and Rural Hospitals in the USA

Revolutionary Healthcare Access for Neurology, Pulmonary, Cardiology, Infectious Disease, Wound Care, and More

PLANO, TEXAS, USA, June 3, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Doctors Anytime Powered by iDocsWeb is thrilled to announce the launch of its Specialist Clinics via telemedicine, providing a new lifeline for small and rural hospitals across the United States.

With this innovative service, hospitals can now offer specialized medical care in Neurology, Pulmonary, Cardiology, Infectious Disease, Wound Care, and a range of other specialties with minimal commitment.

The diverse network of Specialists offers relief in a time of provider shortages

The Specialist Clinics are designed to address the critical shortage of specialist care in underserved areas. By partnering with Doctors Anytime, hospitals can schedule as little as two hours per week of telemedicine consultations with leading specialists, ensuring that patients receive the expert care they need without the need for long-distance travel or prolonged wait times.

Our telemedicine Specialist Clinics bring expert medical care directly to the patients who need it most, without the barriers of distance and limited local resources.”

Dr. Suresh Nellore, CEO
