Overseeing this Virginia-based project further establishes our capabilities in the Northeast, and cements Premier as a truly national hospitality project management firm.”

Derek Weaver, Vice President of Project Management and Estimating have provided construction project management services at the Westfields Marriott Washington Dulles hotel renovation. With a project plan that required much of 2023 to complete, the updated property quietly celebrated its re-opening late last year.

Premier was commissioned to provide project management services on behalf of Hudson Advisors. The Westfields Marriott Washington Dulles is owned by Lone Star Funds and managed by Marriott International Inc.

As part of Premier's project management services, the firm collaborated with architects NORR and interior design firm

HBA to complete the delivery of the comprehensive renovation of this upscale full service hotel. A significant hotel renovation by any measure, Premier oversaw the updating of the property's 336 guestrooms and public spaces, including the hotel's lobby, reception, public corridors, over 60,000 square feet of function space across 21 event rooms, as well as the updating of the destination Westfields Lounge.

“The Premier Project Management team was very excited to lead the PM on the Westfields Marriott Washington Dulles project,” states Derek Weaver, Premier's Vice President of Project Management and Estimating. “Not only did this project represent yet another Marriott-flagged hotel renovation our team has project managed, but our overseeing this Virginia-based project further establishes our capabilities in the Northeast, and cements Premier as a truly national hospitality project management firm.”
