Marko Stout is a Modern Master like Andy Warhol and Jeff Koons”

Maxim Magazine

"Glitz & Glamour" features Stout's renowned exploration of luxury, glamour, and opulence through a series of captivating artworks that resonate deeply with the vibrancy and dynamism of modern urban life. The exhibition's allure is amplified by Stout's distinctive use of rich textures and bold color palettes, making each piece a testament to his unique artistic vision.

This event follows the artist's previous sold-out exhibitions at the Kate Oh Gallery in the fall of 2023, which similarly showcased Stout's ability to blend contemporary themes with high-end artistic expressions. His consistent success underscores his standing as a pivotal figure in the contemporary art world, particularly in portraying themes of affluence and elegance.

The "Glitz & Glamour" exhibition at the Anita Rodgers Gallery will continue to be available to the public for viewing through the end of the month, offering art lovers and newcomers alike the opportunity to immerse themselves in a world where art meets the epitome of stylish extravagance.
