Nice Carnival

may well make Nice Carnival the oldest and original carnival celebration in the world. In 1873, the Carnival format was reinvented into a parade, adding masquerades, satirical floats, and competitions. In recent years, the two-week event has attracted over a million visitors to Nice.

The 2025 Nice Carnival will be held from 15 February to 02 March and the theme this year is the "King of the Seas and Oceans". Artists will create 18 carnival floats and other figurines (in traditional papier-mâché) for the parade. After the 2016 Nice truck attack, the main parade route was moved from the Promenade des Anglais to the Promenade du Paillon. The parades are a riot of colour and take place both day and night.

A particular highlight is the "Battle of the Flowers", situated on the famous Promenade des Anglais. In recent years, these flower parades have matched the theme and scale of the main carnival; comprising around 15 allegorical floats decorated with fresh flowers, and surrounded by jugglers, stilt walkers, and other street performers. In total, over 250,000 stems of flowers and 21 tonnes of mimosas are distributed to the public each year; 80% of which are produced locally.

David Viney, Manager of Haute Vue, said:

"In the early 20th Century, the winter months were the peak season on the Riviera. And with good reason. The temperatures are mild, there is lots of sunlight, and relatively low rainfall. The mimosa season is a riot of beautiful colours, and the Nice Carnival is the undoubted highlight of the period (and the perfect event to anchor a trip around). We are delighted when our guests discover the delights of this season, so we are offering a huge discount on our (already low) winter season prices for stays that coincide with the Carnival."
