Editorial Director*

For the Technology Awards, IBA Group submitted projects based on ICDC, its cloud platform that is instrumental in solving data management problems. The company modernized legacy applications of its clients and helped them transfer to the cloud platforms that best suit their needs, giving momentum to their businesses.

For the Cyber Security Awards, IBA Group selected the project that helped a major software development company establish best cyber security practices and increase the level of security awareness of their employees.

With 170 entries received this year, the IT Europa Channel Awards recognize and reward excellence in European channels. IT Europa will announce the winners of each category at the IT Europa Channel Awards ceremony to be held on Wednesday, June 26 in London.

IT Europa's Editorial Director, Will Garside, said: “Our awards consistently celebrate the expertise and outstanding achievements of both IT service providers and vendors. We have several new awards this year and true to our tradition, entry is free of charge. This year saw a fantastic number of entries, making the selection of finalists from such an exceptional pool a challenging task. We extend our gratitude to everyone who submitted entries and look forward to announcing the winners this June at our gala event.”

About IT Europa Channel Awards

A leading pan-European contest for ISVs, Solution Providers, and Systems Integrators, as well as their vendor and distributor partners, the IT Europa Channel Awards, formerly the European IT & Software Excellence Awards, reward excellence in software development among European IT and telecommunication solution providers.
