PDP attributes its impressive success to a comprehensive strategy focused on people, technology, process, and partnerships. Founded by industry veterans, the company has leveraged a combined 150 years of industry experience to provide unparalleled service and support to its customers.

"It's truly gratifying to see what PDP has achieved in its first year," said Karl Meyer, Founder, Chairman, and CEO at PDP. PDP has experienced remarkable growth in its first year, expanding its two-man box truck and flatbed services to 30 markets across the country, consistently meeting and exceeding customer expectations. Additionally, PDP's Rapid Response Teams are on standby to provide nationwide support when needed. The company's dedication to client relationships has secured impressive customers. The PDP Delivery Management System (DMS) Portal is fully operational, significantly enhancing the client experience by bridging the communication gap between drivers and customers.

“We believe that our customer-centric approach, combined with our unwavering commitment to delivery excellence, has set us apart in our industry,” said Roman Fitzmartin, Chief Revenue Officer of PDP. “We remain committed to delivering the best experience possible for our loyal customers.”

As PDP marks the milestone, company leaders are set to collaborate with leading organizations and industry experts at the Home Delivery World conference in Philadelphia on June 5 and 6.
