Key Dates:

- Early Bird Submission Deadline: Extended to June 30, 2024
- Final Submission Deadline: September 30, 2024
- Winners Announcement: December 1, 2024
- Internet Vote Campaign for Grand Prize: Begins

December 1, 2024

The decision to extend the early bird deadline comes in response to the significant impact the recent storms have had on the community. "We recognize the challenges that many authors in the Houston area are facing right now," said Rita Mills of the FIRE Book Awards. Extending the deadline ensures that all our participants have ample time to complete their submissions without added stress."

About the FIRE Book Awards

The FIRE Book Awards celebrate excellence in independent publishing, aiming to highlight the exceptional works of Indie authors. By redistributing attention and recognition typically dominated by traditional publishing houses, the FIRE Book Awards strive to empower unique voices in literature.

Grand Prize and Internet Vote Campaign

Gold winners in each category will automatically be entered into the Internet Vote campaign, which begins on December 1, 2024. This campaign will determine the grand prize winner, allowing the public to engage and vote for their favorite works.
