

Award-winning composer and pianist Steve Barakatt premieres in Vietnam

Two concerts to be held at one of Vietnam's most significant UNESCO World Heritage Sites

HANOI, VIETNAM, June 7, 2024

/EINPresswire.com/ -- World-renowned composer and pianist Steve Barakatt will perform at the Royal Garden of the Imperial City in Hue, Vietnam, on June 10 and 11, 2024. These concerts, presented during the distinguished Hue Festival 2024, are part of his acclaimed "Néoréalité World Tour," which has already captivated audiences in major cities across Europe, Asia, and North America, including a debut at the iconic Carnegie Hall.

Steve Barakatt expressed his excitement for his upcoming debut concerts in Vietnam, a country where his music has resonated with millions of music listeners. Known in Vietnam for compositions such as "The Whistler's Song," "Rainbow Bridge," and "Flying," Barakatt stated:

"I am eager to finally visit my Vietnamese friends and offer a musical journey in such an iconic location that represents the heart of Vietnam's rich culture."

His Excellency Shawn Steil, Ambassador of Canada to Vietnam, emphasized the importance of the event:

"The music performances of a world-renowned Canadian artist at a landmark cultural event in Vietnam provide an exceptional opportunity to build bridges and celebrate the friendship between our countries through the universal language of music."
