LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, June 4, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For New Music Friday,

It was created to inspire, relate, rebuild and remind listeners of who they are and encourage them to live a purposeful life.”

Donald "DĒP" Paige

Grammy-winning singer/songwriter Donald "DĒP" Paige (pronounced Deep) dropped a new EP of spiritual alignment and empowerment on Friday, May 31, 2024 on the last day of Mental Health Awareness Month. The five-song EP, "Angel Numbers and Frequencies" is a special project created to reconnect listeners with their passions, purpose and higher power. With the album, a soothing sound of affirmations, DĒP hopes to heal, reconnect and guide listeners through the process of manifestation, intention and healing.

"Angel Numbers and Frequencies" was inspired by DĒP's transformative trip to Bahia, Brazil where he experienced a spiritual awakening. Interestingly, he created this music specifically to address the mental health and self care of Black men, counteracting negative stereotypes and cultivating a new mindset of well being. Uplifting. Positive. Enlightening. "Angel Numbers and Frequencies" taps into the idea of "angel numbers," which is rooted in numerology and believed to be messages from the spiritual world with the sole purpose of guiding one's path in life.

In a heightened state of awareness, DĒP began noticing repeated patterns of numbers, researched its meaning and worked with a team of producers to create meditation music for the body and soul. The 22-minute EP is a curated compilation to take a listener on a journey of awakening, ascension, revelation and reconnection.

"It is our job as creatives to gift the world with truth, observations and, sometimes, solutions beyond creating another bop," said DĒP. He says his latest work is a healing, motivational and reconnecting journey of self awareness through a sonic experience. "It was created to inspire, relate, rebuild and remind listeners of who they are and encourage them to live a purposeful life," he added.

Four of the five songs on the EP contain an "angel number," driving the creative force behind its sonics and lyrics. "Angel Numbers and Frequencies" contain the following tracks:

1. "Ash Catchum 528" – the number 528 symbolizes that financial reward and prosperity is on the way. It also represents that one should focus on positive changes toward a more balanced life through manifestation. The track is produced by Bo Lamar of Bo Lamar Productions (BLP), a three-time Grammy-winning music production house.
 2. "Homing Device 777" – the number 777 is linked to self discovery and personal growth. The track is produced by Quasi Ray Nelson.
 3. "The Plug 963" – the number 963 is known as the Frequency of the Gods. It represents spiritual growth and seeking one's purpose in life. The track is produced by Lamar "LAX" Alexander and Day Underscore of MoDULA.
 4. "40" – A pivotal age for the artist. The track is produced by BizKit and Butta of B & B Entertainment, a multi Grammy-nominated record and platinum-selling record production duo.
 5. "Alignment 297" – the number 297 is a powerful reminder that one should stay open to whatever life brings. The track is produced by musical phenom Micah Street, a twentysomething 13x platinum-selling record producer.
- All lyrics are written by DēP and released independently through Think DēP Entertainment.
