All-New Doc Follows Real-Life NY Thespian Trying to Get His Break

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, USA, June 4, 2024 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Trailblazing independent film leader Random Media announces the video on demand/VOD debut of a delightfully unique documentary from director Charlie Williams, the poignant, funny, and unflinchingly honest FRONT STAGE & BACK, on major platforms beginning June 11, 2024. Produced by EXU Media and Cinomadic, it's a delightful character study of prolific 58-year-old New York actor Theodore Bouloukos, who has been in over a hundred-unheard-of-films.

A uniquely engaging cinema verité, the film follows Bouloukos in his daily struggle to retain his integrity and keep his head above water in an industry that offers so much and gives him so little. Punctuated by clips from his many bizarre, totally anonymous films, Theo takes audiences on a muddled journey through painful auditions, low-paid jobs, and drunken dinner parties that describe his life in New York's Upper East Side, where he shares a small apartment with his brother.

As his image gradually emerges on a portrait artist's canvas, the camera searches out the real story beyond this actor's resilience and flamboyant wit. It unfolds a tale of more profound hurt and familial complications. FRONT STAGE & BACK grapples with the human dilemma of self-definition, self-worth, and self-truth and explores the shaky foundations on which these are based.
