TLC is the premier Asian exhibition for logistics, information technology, and supply chain management. Transport Logistic China provides a platform for logistics professionals to connect with clients seeking supply chain solutions. The event is highly regarded across Asia for its role in facilitating entry into the rapidly growing Chinese market.

"China's economy continues to expand, with business and trade flourishing, driving up demand for logistics services. The Chinese government supports the development of the domestic market. TLC 2024 is the ideal venue to meet new and potential clients from the manufacturing, e-commerce, and retail sectors," says Jun Sun, Country Sales Manager.

Exhibition visitors will have an excellent opportunity to find logistics partners to support their businesses and to stay updated on the latest technological innovations in the transport and logistics sector.

We're excited to meet you at the AsstrA booth!
