“Working together with Entrex helps us leverage our underutilized gas wells while promoting environmentally friendly, carbon offset producing, mobile data centers supporting the large data mining and crypto mining client needs” said Phil Parker, CEO of Energex Power.

“Our focus on ‘carbon offset projects that make a difference’ is why Energex is a perfect partner to launch these mobile data centers” said Tom Harblin Partner.

“Our initiatives with a series of product and service companies, introduced by broker dealers, has offered interesting carbon offset producing deal flow which have quantifiable benefits to the companies, the clients and the environment”.
